

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start!
- Let's Explore!
- Let's Practice!
- Extension Activity
- Target Words
- Learning Points

Let's Start!

Use information about personal and professional plans for the future in social and work situations.

Learning Outcome:

Describe common activities at work to a visitor using short sentences.

Can Do Statements:

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can ask for and give instructions.
- I can introduce someone and start a conversation with a stranger.

Ask your partner:

- What was your first job after college?
- Would you like to work at a restaurant?
Why or why not?

Let's Explore!

I start my new job today!

Instructions: Read the dialogue aloud.

- Michael: Welcome to your first day, Vanessa.
- Vanessa: Thank you. I'm excited.
- Michael: After your trial period, we can evaluate your job performance.
- Vanessa: I understand. I'm prepared to work hard.
- Michael: Your hours are from 3:00 - 11:00 p.m. It's important that you're prompt everyday.
- Vanessa: No problem. What should I start with?
- Michael: I'd also like you to familiarize yourself with the menu ingredients.
- Vanessa: Certainly. I'll get on it.
- Michael: Daniel can introduce you to the rest of the kitchen. Let's go meet him.
- Michael: Vanessa, I'd like you to meet Daniel, our head chef. Daniel, this is Vanessa. She's starting today as our new sous chef.
- Vanessa: Nice to meet you, Daniel.
- Daniel: It's a pleasure, Vanessa. Welcome to our kitchen.
- Vanessa: I look forward to learning a lot from you.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa gets instructions from her new boss.

Instructions: Use the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

1. After Vanessa's trial period, her manager will _____ her job performance.
2. It's important that she's _____ every day.
3. Vanessa asks, "What should I _____ with?"
4. Michael wants Vanessa to _____ herself with the menu.
5. Your _____ are from 3:00 - 11:00 p.m.

Word bank

start starting familiarize family hours ours evaluate prompt

Let's Practice!

Let's meet our colleagues.

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

Daniel can meet you to the rest of the kitchen. _____

Daniel, I'd like you to greet Vanessa. _____

Never to meet you, Daniel. _____

It's a pleased, Vanessa. _____

Extension Activity

Write a paragraph about your job.

*Instructions: Complete the following steps.
Fill in the Self-Assessment.*

- Talk about what your boss told you at the beginning about the rules and your work hours.
- Write a paragraph including both introductory and concluding sentences.
- Introduce one friend or co-worker to another in English. Teach them what they should say to respond.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about policies at work.

☐
☐

I write a paragraph describing the conditions of my job.

☐
☐

I introduce one person to another in English.

☐
☐

I teach someone to respond to a greeting in English.

☐
☐

Target Words

- to evaluate (verb): to judge the performance of an employee
e.g. Every employee should expect the boss to evaluate them once a year.
- job performance (noun): how well an employee does his job
e.g. Your boss would look at your job performance in the first few months.
- prompt (adjective): on time
e.g. It's important to be prompt for work every day.
- I'll get on it (expression): I will do this task right away
e.g. Manager: You need to be familiar with all the recipes. Chef: Sure. I'll get on it.
- to familiarize (verb): to get to know the content of something well e.g. Vanessa has to familiarize myself with all the recipes.
- to introduce (verb): to help two people meet for the first time
e.g. I want to introduce you to the head chef. He wants to meet you.
- I'd like you to meet... (expression): what you say to introduce a person to another person e.g. Vanessa, I'd you to meet our head chef, Daniel.
- It's a pleasure (expression): what you say to reply when you are introduced to someone new e.g. Hi. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Learning Points

Introducing Someone

When you introduce someone at work, you use words like:

"This is (name), a new employee "

"I'd like to meet (name), our manager."

When you introduce yourself to someone at work, you use words like:

"Hi, I'm (name) . I work in the (job type) department."

Examples

Marco: I'd like you to meet Alysha. She's starting today.

Jennifer: Hi Alysha. Let me know if you need anything.

