

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start!
- Let's Explore!
- Let's Practice!
- Extension Activity
- Target Words
- Learning Points

Let's Start!

T-shirt or tie? What can you wear to work?

Learning Outcome:

Identify ways of improving aspects of the use of expressions, structures and vocabulary according to the learning outcomes of level Elementary A.

Can Do Statements:

- I can talk about what to wear to work.
- I can say when I'm not sure about something.
- I can talk about what I have to do.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to wear formal clothes or do you prefer jeans and T-shirts?
Why?
- In what situations do you wear something formal?

Let's Explore!

Peter and Vanessa talk about the do's and don'ts* of work clothes.

*"Dos and don'ts" is a list of what you should and shouldn't do in a particular situation.

Instructions: Read the dialogue aloud.

- Peter: So, how's the new job?
Vanessa: I'm not sure if the manager decided yet.
Peter: I suppose there are a lot of applicants. I guess it's tough to get the right person!
Vanessa: Perhaps you're right.
Peter: Anyway, it must be nice to wear what you want for work.
Vanessa: I don't think that's true. We need to wear chef's whites in the kitchen.
Peter: What's that?
Vanessa: Checkered pants and a white toque!
Peter: What, that funny hat in the movies?
Vanessa: It's not funny! It's cute! What do you have to wear?
Peter: Definitely not jeans! Unless it's casual Friday. For the rest of the week, it's business attire only.
Vanessa: Hang on. Are you wearing a collared shirt? You need to send me a picture!
Peter: Is it so hard to imagine?
Vanessa: I guess. You just look like a casual kind of guy.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa talks about what she has to wear at work. Work keeps everyone busy! Everyone has something to do!

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

I have to wear (chef's whites / sous whites / linen whites) in the kitchen.

I need to report to the (sous-chef / line cook / head chef) every day.

I have to wear (business / casual / Friday) attire at work.

You (would / want / need) to send me a picture!

What do (you / I / we) have to wear?

Let's Practice!

You have to wear the right clothes for the right job!

Instructions: Write the words in the correct category.

business attire

Jeans

t-shirt

chef's whites

collared shirt

tie

Toque

casual Friday

sport shoes

shorts

FORMAL

INFORMAL

Extension Activity

Write a report about dress codes in other countries.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go online and find information on dress codes in 3 different countries.
- Look for dress codes at work. Is it business attire only? Describe the clothes people wear.
- Look for dress codes in casual situations. When do people wear casual clothes?
- Write a paragraph (8-10 lines) about the information you find.
- Read your paragraph aloud to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I read about dress codes at work.

☐☐

I talk about clothing and work attire.

☐☐

I write a paragraph about proper clothing.

☐☐

Target Words

- collared shirt (noun): a formal shirt with a buttoned-up part above the neckline e.g. I need to see a picture of you wearing a collared shirt!
- applicant (noun): a person who applies for a job
e.g. I suppose there are many applicants for the job.
- jeans (noun): a type of informal trousers, usually blue
e.g. I can't wear jeans at work! It's formal attire only!
- casual Friday (expression): in North America, the day when employees can wear informal clothes
e.g. I can wear jeans on casual Friday.
- chef's whites (noun): a chef's formal uniform
e.g. I need to wear chef's whites in the kitchen.
- toque (noun): a tall, white hat worn by a chef
e.g. I have to wear my toque every day.
- business (adjective): formal
e.g. I need to wear business clothes for work.
- casual (adjective): informal
e.g. I guess you just look like a casual kind of guy.

Learning Points

Expressing Uncertainty

You express uncertainty when you are not sure whether something can happen, or whether something is true or not.

You can use expressions like Hang on..., or I'm not sure and the Present Simple to show uncertainty.

Expressions	Meaning
Hang on...	You need a moment to think about it.
I guess...	You agree with the information.
I'm not sure...	You don't think you know or agree.
I suppose...	You may know or agree, but are not sure about it.

Examples

Ann: I'm not sure about the manager's decision.

Bob: I suppose there are a lot of applicants.

Formal vs. Casual Clothes

Formal	Casual
collared shirt chef's whites business attire checkered pants tie	jeans casual Friday T-shirt sport shoes shorts

Certain companies have specific dress codes. In some situations, you must wear formal clothes at all times.

In other situations, you can wear casual clothes on Fridays in North American companies. Here is a list of formal and casual clothes and expressions:

