Let's Start!

Great job...good salary...Let's apply!

Learning Outcome:

Use information about personal and professional plans for the future in social and work situations.

Ask your partner:

- What kind of jobs have unusual schedules?
- Would you like to work at night?
Why or why not?

Can Do Statements:

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can request and reply to convey information.
- I can ask for and give instructions

Let's Explore!

Vanessa inquires about an interesting job opening at a restaurant. Is it a dream job*?

*A "dream job" is a job that you love to do and that pays very well.

Instructions: Read the dialogue aloud.

Restaurant manager:

Good afternoon, this is Michael speaking. How may I help you?

Vanessa:

Hello. I want to inquire about the position in your restaurant.

Restaurant manager:

Which one do you wish to apply for?

Vanessa:

Is there more than one?

Restaurant manager:

Yes. The kitchen needs a sous-chef and a line cook.

Vanessa:

What does the sous-chef job entail?

Restaurant manager:

Well, it can be rewarding, but you need to be able to work long hours.

Vanessa:

What's the salary like?

Restaurant manager:

It depends on your experience. We can negotiate that during the interview.

Vanessa:

Do I need anything in particular to apply?

Restaurant manager:

You have to bring your resume and some reference letters. Are you free tomorrow at 10 a.m.?

Vanessa:

Absolutely! Do I need to come to the restaurant?

Restaurant manager:

Yes. See you tomorrow morning.
